William J. Battey Wants Little Narragansett Bay Made Safer For Sailboats—Sale of Red Cross Seals Reached 37,950—Keeping Back the Sea at Weekapaug Inn—Roll Call at Broad Street Christian Church.

Mrs. Harriet M. Stillman Chapman of Elm street died Tuesday. Mrs. Chapman was the widow of Israel Chapman and is survived by a son, Wayland Chapman, with whom she made her home and a half sister, Mrs. Charles L. Segar, also of this town. Mrs. Chapman, who was in her 72d year, was born in Newport, Feb. 18, 1841, and attended the New Britain, Conn., Normal school, before teaching in Westerly, where she later married Mr. Chapman of Avondale, who died Nov. 20, 1871.

The following were elected officers of the Congregational church at its annual meeting: Deacons for three years, Caleb Clark and John Ferguson; deacon for two years, Theodore Black; treasurer, William Bell; collector, John Rowe; auditor, James McKenzie, Jr.; members of the church committee, Mrs. John Rowe, Mrs. Theodore Black and Mrs. Thankful King.

A set of framed resolutions were presented by R. B. Melick, donor of the new bell, as evidence of appreciation for his generous gift.

Men in the employ of F. C. Buffum, proprietor of Weekapaug Inn, at Weekapaug, which was threatened with considerable damage as the result of the high winds and sea of last week, the concrete promenade being taken away from their foundations, have commenced laying several rows of cedar trees in front of the property, that it may be protected from further damage.

Next spring Mr. Buffum is planning to build another bulkhead in front of the cedars that are being put in, and filling the enclosure with rocks as a foundation to be covered with sand. It will take quantities of filling to replace the sand washed out in Westerly and vicinity during the few weeks in December. The sales amounted to $7,950, an increase of over $500 from the year 1911. The sales in 1911, 1912, 1913, 1914, 1915, 1916, 1917, 1918, 1919, 1920, 1921, 1922, 1923, 1924, 1925, 1926, 1927, 1928, 1929, 1930, 1931, 1932, 1933, 1934, 1935, 1936, 1937, 1938, 1939, 1940, 1941,
